For disorders of the feminine organs have gained their great renown and enormous sale because of the permanent good they have done and are doing for the women of this country.

If all ailing or suffering women could be made to understand how absolutely true are the statements about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, their sufferings would end.

Mrs. Pinkham counsels women free of charge. Her address is Lynn, Mass. The advice she gives is practical and honest. You can write freely to her; she is a woman.

WANDERING IN DREAMLAND.

How an Absent-Minded Woman Created a Laugh in a Street Car.

The young woman's mind was probably "way off in the land of cut-on-the-bias, and yokes and flarings, and plaitings, and appliques, and ruffles, and things like that, whatever they may mean, says the Washington Post.

Anyhow, when she got on an uptown Ninth street car the other afternoon, she dreamily opened her pocketbook when the conductor came around for her fare, stuck a gloved finger and thumb into one of the compartments of the same, extracted a couple of foul samples and, with that faraway expression still in her eyes, handed them to the conductor. The conductor was a middle-aged man. He smiled and waited for the young woman to come out of her trance. But she held the foul samples out to him with her eyes on vacancy, until the conductor, still grinning, had to fetch her back to earth.

"Yes, they're pretty, miss," he said, "and I'd like to get my wife a dress off that piece on top, but she's—"

The young woman blushed like a red-hot stove lid, dug into another compartment of her pocketbook for a car ticket, and she looked real embarrassed when the brutal male persons across the car aisle grinned, so she did.

Matter of Memory.
The man who was attempting suicide was not sinking for the third time. Of course, it was necessary hereupon that he recall everything in his past life in the space of one instant.

"This he failed to do.
"Again my cursed memory!" he hissed, and he waded ashore in much chagrin, which was in nowise lessened by the derisive laughter of the spectators.—Detroit Journal.

ROBERTS ON THE MOVE

His Army Has Reached South Bank of the Rhenoster River.

Many Free Staters Surrendered During the Last Few Days, Giving Up Horses, Rifles and Ammunition—Late War News.

London, May 24.—The war office publishes the following from Lord Roberts, from the south bank of the Rhenoster river, May 23, 1:30 p. m.:

"We found, on arrival here this morning, that the enemy had fled during the night. They had occupied a strong position on the north bank of the river, which had been carefully entrenched, but they did not think it advisable to defend it when they heard that Ian Hamilton's force was at Heilbron and that our cavalry, which had crossed the Rhenoster, was threatening their right and rear.

"The bridges over the Rhenoster, several culverts and some miles of the railway were destroyed.

"Ian Hamilton's force drove the Boers under Piet Dewet before them from Lindley to Heilbron. The passage of the Rhenoster was strongly disputed. Our loss might have been heavy but for a well-considered plan which brought Smith-Dorrien's brigade on the enemy's flank just at the right moment.

"The officer commanding at Boshof reports that upward of 250 Free Staters have surrendered during the last few days, and that they have given up 300 rifles, 100 horses and a large amount of ammunition.

"Kelly-Kenny reports that three companies of yeomanry who were sent to repair the telegraph line and to clear the country between Bloemfontein and Boshof have returned to Bloemfontein, having performed the duty exceedingly well."

Kimberley, May 22.—About eight hundred Boers have surrendered at Vryburg (north of Kimberley), and a little more than half way between that place and Mafeking. The road is all clear from Mafeking and all opposition in this district is practically ended.

Cape Town, May 24.—It is reported here that President Kruger has received a communication from Abraham Fischer, one of the Boer delegates now in the United States, advising him to surrender on the best terms obtainable from Lord Roberts. It is also understood that when Lord Roberts crosses the Vaal river he will issue a proclamation announcing that if the burghers return to their farms their property and stock will be respected.

TURKEY MUST PAY UP.

Congress May Be Called Upon By the President to Take Action in the Matter.

Constantinople, May 24.—The United States legation, having waited four weeks for a reply to the note of April 24 regarding the American indemnity claims, Mr. Lloyd Griscom, United States charge d'affaires, has handed to Tewfik Pasha, minister of foreign affairs, a new note, couched in more precise terms and insisting upon a prompt settlement.

The note produced a great impression, as the porte thought the matter postponed, if not abandoned. It is believed that the United States will not wait so long this time for an answer America's indulgence thus far not having made a satisfactory impression upon the porte.

Washington, May 24.—Beyond the statement that the department is still earnestly prosecuting the indemnity claims against the Turkish government, the officials of the state department decline to indicate the character of the last instruction sent to Charge Griscom in relation to these claims. Therefore, it is to be assumed, that the Constantinople dispatch accurately sets out the character of the communication. It is certainly not an ultimatum, but is believed to be as strong in its representations as a diplomatic note could be made without actually becoming an ultimatum. It is probable that before taking this step the president might call on congress, the war-making power, for an indication of its wish in the matter, so as to ensure full support in the execution of any policy which he may feel called upon to adopt.

Alleged Dynamiters Indicted.

Elland, Ont., May 24.—The grand jury brought in a true bill against Dallman, Nolin and Welsh, the alleged dynamiters. Counsel for the crown stated that no evidence would be offered attempting to show that the prisoners were connected with any secret organization.

CARTER MEDICINE CO. WINS.

Obtains Injunction in Case Involving Simulation of Labels.

Brent Good, president of the Carter Medicine Company, yesterday received a telegram from his lawyers in Chicago, informing him that a final injunction, with costs, had been granted against the Chicago Label and Box Company. This company makes a specialty of manufacturing labels, boxes, etc., for druggists. The Carter Company has been following them through the courts for two years on the complaint that the label company was making simulations of the labels of Carter's Little Liver Pills. They have now obtained a final injunction, with costs, and the costs are very large, as the case has been submitted to a Master in Chancery for a final accounting.

The Carter Medicine Company has been the first and only one to prosecute printers or engravers who have prepared such labels and wrappers. It marks a new departure in infringement cases, and their victory is one of great importance to the whole "proprietary trade," and also of interest to retail druggists.—N. Y. Press, May 2, 1900.

"Mit Lots of Fedders."

Robert Frank, the well-known artist, is a self-made man, and not until he became self-supporting did he have a chance to pursue the regular studies which most people have in earlier life, says the Philadelphia Post. When he began drawing for a living his workmanship was so excellent that he had no difficulty in securing orders. One day he delivered some sketches to an employer, who said: "By the by, Frank, I want a picture drawn in a great hurry. It is a novel thing, a boxing kangaroo."

"Ja wohl," answered the artist, "I will have it ready to-morrow for you."

"You know what a kangaroo is, of course," Frank must have been thinking of an ostrich, because he answered with a complacent smile.

"Ja, gewisslich. It is a long, tall thing mit lots of fedders." And "Fedders" has been his nickname ever since.

BARBER GOT IT MIXED.

In Relating a Little Joke He, After the Manner of His Kind, Turned It Upon Himself.

Henry Lamm, an attorney of Sedalia, told a story at the reception to the Missouri Bar association recently which caused a great laugh, says the Kansas City Star. Mr. Lamm was called on to make an impromptu speech. He said:

"This is taking an unfair advantage of me. I read a paper in my pocket which I am to read at the meeting to-morrow. It is a very dry paper and it will take me an hour to read it. If I am given the slightest encouragement I will read it right now. That would be one on you, wouldn't it?"

"And that reminds me. I was in Texas recently and there they have a new joke. A man asks you: 'Have you heard the story about the two dirty collars?' You are supposed to answer: 'No.' And then the man says: 'That's one on you.'"

"A Dutch barber who had been sold on this joke concluded to try it on the next customer who came into his shop. So he was getting ready to shave the next caller he asked him:

"'Haf you heard dot story about the two dirty collars?"

"'No,' answered the customer.

"'Vell, dot's one you got on.'"

Histrionic Improbability.

It was during the performance of "Quo Vadis" at Eureka, and Vincinus was begging Petronius to forget his reproaches, saying, tearfully:

"Ah, how can you ever forgive me?"

"Inicinus," replied Petronius, with great earnestness, "thou art my only sister's dead child."

Whereupon the audience, which was not dead, but only bored, burst into huge laughter.—Kansas City Journal.

A Different Declaration.

"She is very proud of the fact that she has an ancestor who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence."

"That's nothing to be proud of. There's a divorce in our family, too."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

ALABASTINE

LABASTINE is the original and only durable wall coating, entirely different from all kalsomines. Ready for use in white or fourteen beautiful tints by adding cold water.

ADIES naturally prefer ALABASTINE for walls and ceilings, because it is pure, clean, durable. Put up in dry powdered form, in five-pound packages, with full directions.

LL kalsomines are cheap, temporary preparations made from whitening, chalks, clays, etc., and stuck on walls with decaying animal glue. ALABASTINE is not a kalsomine.

BEWARE of the dealer who says he can sell you the "same thing" as ALABASTINE or "something just as good." He is either not posted or is trying to deceive you.

ND IN OFFERING something he has bought cheap and tries to sell on ALABASTINE's demands, he may not realize the damage you will suffer by a kalsomine on your walls.

ENABLE dealers will not buy a lawsuit. Dealers risk one by selling and consumers by using infringement. Alabastine Co. own right to make wall coating to mix with cold water.

HE INTERIOR WALLS of every church and school should be coated only with pure, durable ALABASTINE. It safeguards health. Hundreds of tons used yearly for this work.

N BUYING ALABASTINE, customers should avoid getting cheap kalsomines under different names. Insist on having our goods in packages and properly labeled.

USANCE of wall paper is obviated by ALABASTINE. It can be used on plastered walls, wood ceilings, brick or canvas. A child can brush it on. It does not rub or scale off.

STABLISHED in favor. Shun all imitations. Ask patent dealer or druggist for tint card. Write us for interesting booklet, free. ALABASTINE CO., Grand Rapids, Mich.
